

Surety

Express Way

The FCCI Surety Express Way is a three-tiered underwriting approach designed to help you develop quality small and emerging contractor surety accounts. With faster response times, streamlined submission requirements and competitive rates and commissions, this simplified surety process is intended for infrequent or first time bond customers that are not yet ready to meet traditional underwriting informational requirements. The FCCI Surety Express Way allows for flexibility, transition and growth without changing surety companies or underwriters.

ON RAMP

Your access to FCCI's streamlined underwriting and quick response time starts here. Decisions are primarily based on business and personal credit profiles and your favorable recommendation. No financials are required for single and aggregate bond limits up to $250,000 for qualified applicants.

FAST LANE

For single and aggregate bond programs up to $500,000, please contact your local FCCI Surety representative for flexible and discretionary underwriting designed to help you help your customer.

E MERGE

For accounts that have nearly everything but a CPA Review statement, we will consider bonds up to $1,000,000 single and $1,500,000 aggregate with quality in-house or CPA compiled year-end financial statements.
